

LOOKING FOR A CATERING SERVICE FOR YOUR HOLIDAY EVENTS?

WE HAVE ONE (OR TWO OR MORE)!!

Opening Doors, Inc. is a Sacramento regional non-profit that provides business development services to immigrant and underserved communities. We recently launched our innovative “Kitchen Incubator” program to train our clients to realize their dream of owning and operating a successful catering business.

Should you require catering services at your holiday events this season, not only can we provide a wide diversity of excellent multi-cultural foods (Mexican, Peruvian, Salvadorian, Italian and more) and outstanding service, but you will also be directly supporting emerging local food producers and empowering them to be successful in the Sacramento region foodservice community.

This holiday season, let Opening Doors, Inc. make your company events memorable while supporting our unique business development program for Sacramento’s underserved communities.

For more information please contact Roxana Calderon
916.492.2591